

State Bank of India New York
Recruitment Dy. Chief Financial Officer

Position Description: Deputy CFO reporting directly to CFO in US Operations.

Education:

This position requires a 4-year degree, preferably with a Finance/Accounting major. Additional qualifications in Taxation/Finance preferred.

Experience:

5+ years of demonstrated experience in Finance and Accounting in the financial services industry, preferably banks or in public accounting tax consulting firms. Producing, creating, and/or auditing, Head Office reports, Management reports, and Regulatory reports. Familiarity with the US tax process, including coordination with outside consultants, adherence to tax laws, estimations and calculations, payments, filings, planning, strategies, tax reform, deferred tax accounts, and audits. Well versed in analytics and simulations, and creating presentations for management teams.

Responsibilities include:

- Head Office Reporting, Management Reporting, Regulatory Reporting
- Close coordination with external auditors for quarterly Head Office closing package
- Coordinate, control, and monitor the NY Branch Regulatory Reporting Automation including the roll out for the Chicago Branch and the Los Angeles Agency
- Preparation of tax schedules for outside tax consultants
- Compile Asset/Liability Management (ALCO), Liquidity Coverage Ratio (LCR), Cost/Yield Analysis etc.

Technical Skills:

- High proficiency required in Excel and database software such as Access and/or Monarch
- Experience in automating reporting processes, financial reporting, and variance analysis
- Experience working with bank accounting systems such as Midas, Finacle preferred.

Additional Requirements/Preferred Skills:

- In depth knowledge of US GAAP, bank accounting, and exposure to Regulatory Reporting
- Thorough knowledge of banking industry concepts, terms, and products
- Experience working at a US Branch of a foreign bank/Public accounting tax consulting firms
- Exposure to US and NYS/NYC tax preparation
- Knowledge and understanding of various analytical tools to support reporting
- Demonstrated experience with querying and analyzing large data sets, capability to work with minimal supervision, and to manage competing priorities. Perform under tight deadlines
- Obtain reports from all the three US branches and coordinate with external auditors

- Excellent communication skills, both written and verbal
- Strong bias toward data integrity and presentation accuracy

Salary:

Salary in the range of $ 120,000.00 to $ 150,000.00

The applicant should have eligibility for employment in US on a long term basis. We don't sponsor any work related Visas.

Please respond to vppna.nyb@statebank.com and cfo.usops@statebank.com
